

THE BIG STEP: EARLY INTERVENTION TO PRESCHOOL

If your little one is currently receiving Early Intervention (EI) services, now is the time to start preparing for the transition to preschool and Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE) services. Changing from a “family focus” to a “student focus” requires planning. This webinar discusses the importance of transition planning, what to expect, tips for success, and the roles of parents, service coordinators, and educators in ensuring a smooth transition for your child.

This webinar will be presented on Zoom. It will not be recorded.
