

Understanding Special Education

May 24, 2023 | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

This workshop will help you learn the steps of the special education process. Attendees will gain a basic understanding of IDEA's 2004 language on high expectations and become more familiar with their role as parents in the development of Individualized Education Programs (IEPs). You will also have the opportunity to learn some practical strategies for participating effectively in IEP meetings.
