

WORKING... YOU CAN DO IT!!

It's okay to be nervous about working at a job. There are people to help and ways YOU CAN WORK! Here are some helpful tips:

With the right support, you can work!
There may even be a job made just for you.

DARS can help with ways you can get to work while you are in training. But there are also other ways to get to work that you and your parents can look into with your team's help.

You can learn more about types of jobs by trying them out, volunteering, and touring local businesses. DARS and your team can help you.

Most people are kind and will help you. If someone is mean to you, you can tell your boss or a co-worker.

Talk to your parents about your hopes, goals, and dreams.

You and your team can help you and your parents figure out the steps to take.

All of us make mistakes and you will have people that can help you. Don't be afraid to ask for help.

Your team (you, your family, school, DARS) can help talk to your supervisor and the people you work with to make sure they understand and respect the way you communicate.

Some people work all day. Some people work a few hours a day or don't work every day.

You can talk to about your schedule with your supervisor.
